

Tax Planning and Moving Back to the UK

By Martin Rimmer, Head of Tax for Select Investors, a division of St. James's Place (Singapore) Private Limited

Moving back to the UK is a major life-event and it isn't always easy getting used to a country which is very different to the one you left. Amidst all the practicalities, the financial aspects can end up being overlooked.

In the following article, Martin shares some insights on how to plan from a UK tax perspective.
